ALABAMA JUNIOR WINS MISS GALLAUDET TITLE

Carolyn McCaskill was selected from among eight semi-finalists by a panel of seven judges as Miss Gallaudet on Saturday, March 6. The semi-finalists competed in three events -- evening gown, cocktail dress and talent. There were 25 contestants who participated in the week-long pageant. Carolyn, who is a junior majoring in psychology and social work, is from Mobile, Alabama. Her second pageant, Carolyn was first runner-up in the 1974 contest. She will now go on to the Miss Deaf America Pageant in Houston, Texas, in July.

Runners-up were: Martha Sheridan of Ohio, first runner-up; Rita Corey of California, second runner-up; and Kathy Jones of Texas, third runner-up. Kathy Jones also won awards for the best evening gown and cocktail dress competitions, and she was voted by the contestants as Miss Congeniality. Rita Corey won the best talent award for her song and dance number to "Cabaret."

HOUSE HUNTING?

A four bedroom rancher in Montgomery County at New Hampshire Avenue and the Beltway is for sale by the owner at a reduced price prior to listing with a real estate agent. House is equipped with flashing light door and telephone bell system. For information call Mary Fine immediately at 439-6964 (voice or TTY).

WORKS OF CLAIRE BERGMAN TO BE ON EXHIBIT

An exhibit of the works of Claire Esther Bergman will be opening on Friday, March 19, in the Washburn Arts Center from 4-6 p.m.

Mrs. Bergman is by inclination a graphic artist rather than a painter, and most of her portraits are pen and ink drawings. Sketching her portraits with a single unbroken line, she captures the essence of her subject within a few minutes.

All are welcome to meet the artist and view her works. The exhibit and reception are sponsored by the Cultural Affairs Committee and the Art Department.

ON THE GREEN is published each week by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College. Deadline: Monday, noon.
